'BRETON'

Cabernet Franc

"Local benchmark cab franc in earlier-picked, fresher style, refers to Loire, not Bordeaux.

Usual herbal distinction on 2020; compact, bone-dry, with fine, fresh grape tannins. Lighter texture balanced by fruit succulence, for youthful approachability with longevity. Older oak, 10 months." - Angela Lloyd

'BRETON'

Cabernet Franc

"This brilliant, stylishly refined Cabernet Franc uses equal amounts of fruit from the Polkadraai Hills and Firgrove. Perfumed and refreshing, it's a South African take on a St Nicolas de Bourgueil, all balance, poise and detail. Taut and granitic with gentle, caressing tannins and silky red berry and black cherry fruit. 2023-29"

Cabernet Franc

"Striking aromatics of red and blackberries, olive, herbs, tomato leaf, and a hint of violets. The palate is medium-bodied and nicely poised – good fruit definition, fresh acidity, and some crunch."
