'ENCHANTED GARDEN OF THE EDEN VALLEY'Riesling

"Some herbs, spice and fresh lime and lemon-peel aromas on offer here, with a light peppery edge, too. The plate is framed in zesty acidity and holds fresh apple and ice fruit flavor.

Chalky, fresh and dry finish. Drink or hold.

Screw cap."

'ENCHANTED GARDEN OF THE EDEN VALLEY'Riesling

"Fancy florid name, for hopefully, a fancy floral wine. Floral, lavender and lily, slightly nutty honey edge over ripe lemon and lime. Good amount of flavour, firm zesty acidity, light powdery texture and a sour-edged finish of good length. Showing some development, and pretty good to drink over the short term. Good." - Gary
