

Craven

2020

“FIRS VINEYARD”Syrah

“Grapes from Devon Valley. 100% whole-bunch fermentation. Enticing aromatics of violets and herbs before dark fruit and a little tilled earth. The palate is strikingly pure – great fruit definition, racy acidity and powdery tannins, the finish long and dry. A lighter vintage of what anyway tends to be a lighter rendition of the variety – has a real “nervv” quality to it. Alcohol:

SCORE

94THE WINEMAG

Craven

2020

“FIRS VINEYARD”Syrah

“Grapes from Devon Valley. 100% whole-bunch fermentation. Enticing aromatics of violets and herbs before dark fruit and a little tilled earth. The palate is strikingly pure – great fruit definition, racy acidity and powdery tannins, the finish long and dry. A lighter vintage of what anyway tends to be a lighter rendition of the variety – has a real “nervv” quality to it. Alcohol:

SCORE

94THE WINEMAG

Craven

2020

“FIRS VINEYARD”Syrah

“Grapes from Devon Valley. 100% whole-bunch fermentation. Enticing aromatics of violets and herbs before dark fruit and a little tilled earth. The palate is strikingly pure – great fruit definition, racy acidity and powdery tannins, the finish long and dry. A lighter vintage of what anyway tends to be a lighter rendition of the variety – has a real “nervv” quality to it. Alcohol:

SCORE

94THE WINEMAG

Craven

2020

“FIRS VINEYARD”Syrah

“Grapes from Devon Valley. 100% whole-bunch fermentation. Enticing aromatics of violets and herbs before dark fruit and a little tilled earth. The palate is strikingly pure – great fruit definition, racy acidity and powdery tannins, the finish long and dry. A lighter vintage of what anyway tends to be a lighter rendition of the variety – has a real “nervv” quality to it. Alcohol:

SCORE

94THE WINEMAG

Craven

2020

“FIRS VINEYARD”Syrah

“Grapes from Devon Valley. 100% whole-bunch fermentation. Enticing aromatics of violets and herbs before dark fruit and a little tilled earth. The palate is strikingly pure – great fruit definition, racy acidity and powdery tannins, the finish long and dry. A lighter vintage of what anyway tends to be a lighter rendition of the variety – has a real “nervv” quality to it. Alcohol:

SCORE

94THE WINEMAG

Craven

2020

“FIRS VINEYARD”Syrah

“Grapes from Devon Valley. 100% whole-bunch fermentation. Enticing aromatics of violets and herbs before dark fruit and a little tilled earth. The palate is strikingly pure – great fruit definition, racy acidity and powdery tannins, the finish long and dry. A lighter vintage of what anyway tends to be a lighter rendition of the variety – has a real “nervv” quality to it. Alcohol:

SCORE

94THE
WINEMAG