'GERONIMO'

"Serious cinsaut with bigger structure than many; 2020's potential in no doubt though gives youthful pleasure too. Concentrated, with silky richness & lemon acidity for lightness & length."

'GERONIMO'

Cinsault

"I was fed up with people stereotyping Cinsault," says Lukas van Loggerenberg of this serious expression of the grape from coastal Firgrove. Perfumed, bright and complex, with layered redcurrant and red cherry fruit, added texture from 40% whole bunches, sinewy Italian-style tannins and a salty frisson. 2022-27"

'GERONIMO'

Cinsault

"Subtle and ethereal aromatics – initially pretty notes of rose, herbs, red currant, raspberry, and plums but darker berries, olive, and spice come to the fore with time in the glass. The palate has pure fruit, invigorating acidity, and fine yet grippy tannins. Great structure – neither too frivolous nor too brutish. Very well-judged."
