'VELVET FOG'

Pinot Noir

"Shows quite attractive varietal characters of cherry and plum on the bouquet and palate, but never quite moves through the gears. There's nothing really to criticise here, it's a good wine, but at this price there are many pinot options which provide more to spark your interest and hold your attention." - Steven Creber

"This has a very fresh, juicy delivery of ripe red cherries and some sappy complexity threaded in. The palate has a crisp, savory edge to the tannin and bright flavors of red cherries. Drink now. Screw cap." - Nick Stock
