'IN THE FLOWERS'Riesling*

"Tight and squeaky with just enough chew and pucker to elevate things. A little diffuse in fruit character, watery, but refreshing, all Granny Smith apple juice and sprigs of dill and sage herbs. Great finish, long, mouth-watering and a bit puckering-chalky. Nicely done."

"Aromatic, perfumed and fleshy, the 2021 In The Flowers Eden Valley Riesling has bright lime flesh, some spring flowers and layers of quartz and crushed minerals on the base of the palate. In the mouth, the wine is textural and classical in its fruit expression but has texture from barrel fermentation and lees work." - Erin Larkin

"A fresh wine with deep, fresh lemon on the nose, as well as wet-stone minerals. The palate delivers such impressive drive and depth with pithy yellow-citrus flavors and a steady stream of acidity that supports the long finish. Screw cap."
