'MOUNTAIN TOPS'Pinot Noir

"Oof. This is charm and grace. A little animale too. Silky as, light and fine-boned, supple texture with nice, fresh cherry juice bite to the wine, some splashes of rose hip tea, undergrowth and game meat characters. Tannin slips and glides, the wine finishes long and with a little, fine, talc-like pucker. Compelling drinking here. Wants you in." - Mike Bennie
