“OLD MCDONALD”

Grenache

“A strikingly fresh and focused expression with bright aromas of raspberries and boysenberries. Some spices, leafy notes and wild herbs. The palate is lithe and succulent. Really faultless stretch and build, as well as terrific freshness. Drink now or hold.”

“OLD MCDONALD”

Grenache

“Bay leaf and raspberries mark the nose of the 2017 Grenache. It’s medium to full-bodied yet so silky as to be approachable—nay, drinkable—now, yet it will no doubt go at least a decade. Without any perceptible oak, it’s long, fine and spicy on the finish.”

“OLD MCDONALD”

Grenache

“In this single-vineyard wine, from more than 75-year-old bush vines, one of McLaren Vale’s most renowned red winemakers expertly expresses the simultaneous power and playfulness that Grenache can offer. Notes of fleshy blueberry, black cherry, vanilla, baking spice and a savory, mineral streak are all held tightly by granular tannins.” - Christina Pickard
