"Precise 2017, pure black & red fruits, fine peppery aromatics & Elim's cool-climate finesse all given a place in the spotlight by minimal-intervention, old-oak maturation. Like 2016 (5 stars, 95 pts), truly lovely now but will reward cellaring."

'RESERVE'Syrah*

"It has a reserved, quite floral bouquet, pressed rose petals infusing the red berry and brown spice aromas. The palate is well balanced with a fine bead of acidity and quite elegant in style, revealing hints of cola and sage toward the sustained finish. Very fine. I would actually savor this in its flush of youth rather than age."

"Shows lifted notes of white pepper, flint and violets before wild strawberries and cherries. There's real tension, elegance and crystalline purity, where sappy wood spice runs along a wave of fresh acidity and transparent tannins. Grapes were harvested from three vineyards, each from a different clone, grown on shale, gravel and ferricrete." - Malu Lambert
