"From a 43 year old chenin vineyard in Piekenierskloof, 2018 delivers fascinating melange of fruit (pineapples, apples) honey/oatmeal texture & unusual liquorice tweak. Zesty acidity keeps interest up right through to satisfying finish. A keeper. Natural ferment (as all) in barriques."

"Skuinskap - don't you just love the sound of the word? - comes from one of the highest sites in Piekenierskloof, situated at 750 metres on decomposed sandstone soils. Fresh, focused and racy, despite doing full malolactic, it has fennel and fynbos scents, plenty of concentration and refined oak. Superb Chenin. 2020-26"

"From a 1977 Piekenierskloof vineyard on sandstone soils. A pretty nose with notes of blossom and herbs, lime and green apple. The palate is poised, delicate and refined – light and fresh (alcohol is 13.34%) with a super-dry finish. A wine that speaks of its origins with eloquence."
