'SNAKES & LADDERS'Sauvignon Blanc

"From Citrusdal Mountain, a thrilling, distinctive take on trendy blanc fumé, with sauvignon's blackcurrant evident but most green/tropical notes subdued by natural ferment & old-oaking. 2020 ample sweet fruit yet bone-dry, lovely texture, a richness well balanced by firm acidity." - Dave Swingler

'SNAKES & LADDERS'Sauvignon Blanc

"Basie van Lill's low-yielding one-hectare block on Citrusdal Mountain has done it again, producing a wonderful follow up to the maiden release. "I wanted to get away from the variety" says John Seccombe and he's succeeded thanks to talent, natural fermentation and incredible grapes. Concentrated yet focused, this is like a cross between a Xarel-lo and a Furmint."

'SNAKES & LADDERS'Sauvignon Blanc

"It offers an enticing, quite pithy bouquet of mirabelle, jasmine and wax resin scents. The palate is well balanced with a slightly viscous texture that is effortlessly countered by both the razor-sharp acidity and the intrinsic spiciness. White pepper and stem ginger furnish the finish, which lingers in the mouth. A superb Sauvignon Blanc from winemaker John Seccombe."
