

CHAMBERS ROSEWOOD

Rutherglen - Australia

Background

Founded in 1858 in Rutherglen, Victoria, Chambers Rosewood is one of Australia's oldest and most storied wineries, guided today by the sixth generation of the Chambers family. Known for its legendary Muscat and Muscadelle (Topaque), the estate has preserved the slow, soulful craft of fortified winemaking through a centuries-old solera system started in the 1890s. Stephen Chambers continues this legacy through a steady hand that brings a modern sensibility humming beneath the heritage: a refinement of balance, a gentler extraction, a quiet nod to freshness without surrendering the grandeur of tradition. The 2,000-acre property integrates sheep farming for natural vineyard care, creating a self-sustaining ecosystem. In every bottle lies the essence of Rutherglen: wines of profound depth, complexity, and time-worn beauty. These wines bear the soul of the region and in doing so, remind us what authenticity really tastes like: not a concept or a trend, but the enduring pulse of a place over centuries of family dedication.
